CASE STUDY 1

ISSUE

Starting back in November 2017, our relationship with The Fox & Fiddle London had gone SEVERAL years back. So, when they asked us to come on board to improve their social presence and help them with their local advertising, we said YES!

THE FOX & FIDDLE

ABOUT

The Fox & Fiddle London is an authentic English pub crafted for your taste buds and built with an atmosphere here for non stop entertainment. Choose between tasty eats, frothy treats or stay out and enjoy live entertainment at the fox hole.

TISSUE

From content writing to graphic design, social media setup and social media management, we've helped them increase their guest attendance by 32% and put them on the map within the heart of downtown and the tourism district.

CASE STUDY 2

ISSUE

Ticketwindow came to us with an idea to integrate social media marketing with their advanced mobile friendly ticketing system, so that their clients and event planners could engage with fans, patrons and venues at the tip of their fingers.

TICKETWINDOW INC

ABOUT

Ticketwindow is one of Canada's fastest growing ticket agents, providing the option for online web-sales, mobile compatibility, remote ticket sellers through retail outlet locations for instant tickets printed on the spot, and a call center for a wide variety of clients no matter how small or large the event.

TISSUE

Collective Ways also jumped on board to assist them with content writing, website/graphic design and social media management to help them expand within the social realm at a staggering 36% in VIS organic weekly growth rate.

We look forward to partnering with you.

Don't forget to follow us on social media for updates on services and trends.
